Texas & Pacific Roundhouse and Shops Burned to the Ground and Twenty Locomotives Destroyed—Hundreds Homeless.

Hearst News Service.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 3.—Turning to their ruined homes, laid waste by fire that swept an area ten blocks long and seven blocks wide, two hundred families are seeking places to rest tonight.

Every other house in the city, including the churches, is open, and those who have lost their homes and personal effects are welcomed.

The total estimated by the fire which began shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon, is $3,500,000, divided as follows: Two hundred and fifty residences, $1,365,000.

Small business houses and household goods, $800,000.

The Broadway Baptist church, $60,000.

The Broadway Presbyterian church, $75,000.

Texas and Pacific railroad roundhouse and shops, twenty locomotives and 150 box cars, $1,500,000.

J. J. Newton is the only one dead that has been found, though it is feared there are others, as many are missing, some of whom have not yet been reported by friends and relatives.

The fire was under control at 4:30 o'clock, after three hours, fighting by the firemen, in the face of a stiff wind and low water pressure.

Different stories are given as to the origin of the fire. The most plausible is that several small boys were smoking cigarettes in the barn of Frank L. Hackel, corner of Peter-smith and Jennings avenue.

Here the first alarm was given and the wind which was blowing forty miles an hour fanned the flames to other residences, and then along Petersmith street east for ten blocks.

Blowing in a northeasterly direction, the wind forced the flames toward the tower and the business section of the city, and directly toward the Union passenger station.

Everything in its path was consumed, while many persons, among them a number of firemen, were overcome by the smoke and the intense heat. No fatal accidents have been reported from the hospitals tonight.

Apparently doomed to destruction by the oncoming fire, the Union station was closed by officials at 3 o'clock, but it escaped the flames.

The Texas and Pacific shops and round house were burned to the ground, but the depot escaped damage entirely.

Governor Campbell has ordered out two companies of the state militia to protect property and tonight the soldiers are on guard.

NOT COMING TO SEDALIA

Dr. C. R. Carlos Will Not Succeed the Rev. Perry E. Pierce.

Dr. C. R. Carlos, recently pastor of Linwood Boulevard M. E. church in Kansas City, who was assigned by Bishop W. F. Anderson to the pastorate of the Epworth M. E. church of this city at the session of the St. Louis conference held here March 22, has decided that under all of the circumstances he cannot accept the appointment.

He will occupy the pulpit of Epworth church today, but has asked to be transferred to the Indiana conference, and his request has been granted. Epworth pays its pastor $1,200 a year, about one-half what Dr. Carlos received in Kansas City.

As to who will be assigned to the pastorate here nothing is known beyond the fact that he will come from the Indiana conference in exchange for Dr. Carlos.

THE MASQUED CARNIVAL

Business Men's Club Could Make it a Huge Success.

Dr. T. T. Clifford, who suggested to the state fair directors last Thursday the advisability of holding a monster masquerade carnival in Sedalia one night during the state fair, the first week in October, as written of in the Democrat-Sentinel Friday, has some information along this line that the Business Men's association might be glad to take advantage of if the fair directors have too much other business on hand to handle the carnival proposition.

"I have seen it tried," said Dr. Clifford to the Democrat-Sentinel Saturday, "and if Secretary Mellor and his associates will take hold of the undertaking they can not only make some money for the association, but at the same time furnish the best single attraction of fair week, and give to Sedalia an advertisement like the 'Veiled Prophet' gives St. Louis and the 'Priests of Pallas' give to Kansas City each year."

TLED OFF WITH THE $10,000
MARATHON RACE.

BEAT ALL PREVIOUS AMERICAN RECORDS

The Famous Runners Were Outclassed by the French Stranger, Longboat, the Indian and Shrubb Giving Out.

Hearst News Service.

New York, April 3.—Henri St. Yves, a little French waiter, scuttled away with the $10,000 Marathon race here this afternoon, laps and laps in front of the men who, this morning were regarded the best distance runners in the world.

Finishing with a tremendous spurt, the little unknown carried the lilies of France under the wire five minutes ahead of the Italian, Dorando Pietri, and nine minutes ahead of the grizzly little American, Johnny Hayes. The fourth money went to Matt Maloney whose time was not taken.

Longboat, the Indian favorite and choice of the "wise" contingent, collapsed at the end of the nineteenth mile and just as the crack of the pistol signalled the beginning of the winner's last mile Alfred Shrubb, the English representative, staggered off the track and gave up the race.

He was in third place when forced to quit.

St. Yves made the full Marathon distance in 2 hours, 40 minutes and 50 3/5 seconds. This breaks the professional record of this country by three minutes and 29 4/5 seconds, made by Dorando in his first race with Johnny Hayes.

The race started at 3 o'clock this afternoon. There were 25,000 spectators. The winner gets $5,000; second man, $2,500; third, $1,500; fourth, $1,000.

THREE RELATIVES GOT $4,000

Of the $10,000 Estate Left by the Late John Murray.

According to the terms of agreement reached at Kansas City the past week, Daniel Cronan and Mrs. Charles M. Sheets, of Sedalia, and Mrs. Josie Meyer, of Smithton, will receive $4,000 of the estate of $10,000 left by John Murray, deceased husband of their deceased sister.

Murray died at St. Joseph's hospital at Kansas City on May 2, 1908. He left a will requesting that his estate be divided among charitable institutions.

Murray's wife's maiden name was Mary Cronin. She died in 1870. They had no children, and under the statutes the husband's estate goes to the wife's relatives. On this ground the Pettis county relatives instituted suit.

The case has been hanging fire for some time, and according to the settlement the remaining $6,000 of the estate is to be divided among charitable institutions by Charles H. Moore, second vice president of the National Bank of Commerce.

Hearst News Service.

Roscoe, S. D., April 3.—A disastrous prairie fire is tonight sweeping across Edmunds county, after ravaging a wide swath across Faulk county, to the southeast of Roscoe. So far as can be discovered tonight no lives have been lost.

The fire started from sparks of a locomotive near the town of Millard in Faulk county. Its course was northward and it was driven by a swift breeze from the south. When the blaze crossed the Faulk county line it was ten miles wide and was spreading both east and west.

In the dry grass of Snake river valley the fire traveled a terrific rate of speed.

Hundreds of farmers are out fighting the flames, but beyond saving ranch houses which were in the path of the fire, they have made no impression.

Farm houses and barns have been burned and much live stock killed.

WANT TO SEE ROOSEVELT

Thousands Are Hurrying From All Parts of Italy to Greet Him.

Hearst News Service.

Naples, April 3.—Thousands of American residents and tourists in Italy are hastening to Naples to see ex-President Roosevelt. Trains from Rome, Milan, Pisa and Genoa are thronged with Italian excursionists, and a prominent Italian expressed the feeling of the Italian people when he said:

"The Italians ought to make the dock a bed of roses to show their appreciation for what Roosevelt has done to aid us."

There will be little opportunity for the people to express their admiration, however, when he arrives here Monday, as the police arrangements will be of the strictest character.

Fire at the New Shops.

A. J. Smith, a farmer of one and one-half miles north of the new Missouri Pacific shops, saw a large blaze in the vicinity of the shop grounds at 11:15 o'clock last night and sent in an alarm to fire headquarters, thinking one of the shop buildings was on fire.

Both companies responded promptly, only to find that the nightly burning of trash and rubbish was taking place, with no prospect of any damage in sight, so they returned to town.

Increased Postoffice Receipts.

The postal receipts at the Sedalia postoffice for the year ending March 31, as compiled by Postmaster E. E. Coddling, show an increase of 10.7 per cent over the past year.

Figures follow: During 1907-08, $45,212.76; during 1908-09, $50,016.95, showing an increase of $4,804.19.

DALL, REPUBLICAN, RE-

QUESTION OF STATE-WIDE PROHIBITION

It Is Made Special Order for April
8—Republicans Prevent Action
Until After St. Louis Election Next Tuesday.

Associated Press.

Jefferson City, Mo., April 3.—The proposed constitutional amendment establishing state-wide prohibition was today made the special order for April 8 by the house. The committee on constitutional amendments reported the matter today without recommendation. The democrats tried to force its immediate consideration, but the republicans defeated the effort, the action of the republicans being based on the desire to keep the amendment in the background until after the city election in St. Louis next Tuesday, the 6th.

It is claimed the measure will pass both houses.

There was almost a riot before the final vote was taken. The democrats complained that no opportunity had been given to present a minority report and left their seats. There was a rush for the door, the republicans seeking to block the exits.

U. G. Crandall, of St. Louis, republican, and H. I. Johnson, democrat, came to blows, but were quickly separated.

WANTS $5,000 DAMAGES

W. A. VOIGHT BEGINS SUIT
AGAINST THE MISSOURI PA-CIFIC RAILWAY CO.

THE TROUBLE WAS OVER A TICKET

Plaintiff Claims He Gave Conductor Transportation From California to Sedalia and Was Afterwards
Called Upon for Cash.

W. A. Voight, a St. Louisan, traveling for a St. Louis dental supply house, instituted suit in the Pettis county circuit court Saturday against the Missouri Pacific Railway company for $5,000 damages for an act alleged to have been committed by one of defendant's conductors on December 15, 1908.

Judge George F. Longan and R. A. Higdon represent Mr. Voight. According to the petition, Voight boarded a Missouri Pacific train at California on the foregoing date. He purchased a ticket reading from California to Sedalia and when the conductor called for fares tendered the ticket.

After the train had passed Tipton the conductor returned to Voight, telling him his ticket read from California to Tipton and according to the petitioner accused plaintiff of being a deadbeat and threatened to throw him off the train if he did not pay fifty-one cents, the fare from Tipton to Sedalia.

When Voight refused to pay the fifty-one cents demanded the conductor seized his overcoat and when asked by plaintiff what he intended to do with it said he was going to pawn it.

When the train reached Sedalia the conductor took Voight in charge to the telegraph office, keeping him there until he wired to California to learn if Voight had purchased a ticket reading to Sedalia and upon receiving a reply that he did, then liberated plaintiff, wherefore he asks judgment for the foregoing amount, alleging that he has been mortified, humiliated and shamed to that amount.

STOCK BROKERS SUSPEND

Said to Be Only Temporary, Despite $250,000 Liabilities.

Associated Press.

Chicago, April 3.—Announcement was made on the board of trade today of the suspension of the firm of John Dickinson & Co., grain and stock brokers, members of the local board of trade and of the Consolidated Stock Exchange of New York.

The trouble, it is stated, grows out of the stock business in the east.

Dickinson, who is now in New York, has wired the local office that the suspension is only temporary. The liabilities are $250,000.

This Hostler an Egg Getter.

F. M. Thompson, the Missouri Pacific hostler, thinks he ranks rather high in the raising of poultry, for during March he secured 229 eggs from ten hens—a record which is better than that established by Mrs. George Williams, of South Vermont avenue, during the same month.

WILL RETIRE AS MANAGER OF DUN MERCANTILE AGENCY
ON APRIL 15.

HE HAS BOUGHT STOCK IN THE GERMO CO

Will Become Vice President, General Manager and General Auditor
of the Company's Branches
All Over the Country.

John W. Byng, manager of the R. G. Dun Mercantile agency in Sedalia, has tendered his resignation, which becomes effective April 15, and on May 1 he will become vice president, general manager and general auditor of the Germa Manufacturing Co.'s various branches throughout the United States.

No successor to Mr. Byng has yet been appointed and in all probability the local agency will be managed by the district superintendent.

Mr. Byng has been connected with the Dun Mercantile agency for the past eleven years. He is one of the most energetic and industrious young men Sedalia has ever known, and his severance with the agency is made in view of the fact that his offer from the Germa company is more desirable and affords a much better financial remuneration.

Mr. Byng has purchased considerable stock in the Germa company and intends to establish branch offices in Charleston, S. C., Dallas, Texas, and in other large cities of the country.

His new position also makes him general auditor of the branches here, at Los Angeles, Philadelphia and of the recently established branch in Chicago.

Mr. Byng's legion of friends in Sedalia and elsewhere will learn of his advancement with pleasure, feeling confident that he will soon attain in his new undertaking as marked success as he won with the mercantile people.

JUDGE HOFFMAN'S ORDER

WANTS HIS FEE OF $2 EACH ON ALL CIVIL SUITS FILED IN HIS COURT.

AND HE WANTS IT, TOO, AT TIME OF FILING

Circuit Clerk Daugherty Desired to Settle Quarterly With His Honor, but This Was Not Satisfactory.

"It is ordered by the court that hereafter before any civil suit is filed in this court there shall be paid to the clerk the two dollar filing fee provided in Section 9702 of the Revised Statutes of 1899, and the clerk of this court is hereby directed to credit the same to the judicial salary account and pay the same to the judge of this court as provided by Section 9703.

"In addition to the above there shall be paid to the clerk an additional filing fee of three dollars at the institution of each civil action to pay for fees for issuing and serving original writs as the cause may be."

The foregoing is a copy of an order issued by Circuit Judge Louis Hoffman Saturday, following a declaration made by C. W. Daugherty, circuit clerk, that hereafter no costs will be paid to the circuit judge or any one else entitled to costs until a final settlement is made of the case, and until after all costs accruing from the suit are paid.

The order was issued by Judge Hoffman following a motion to issue it made by G. W. Barnett, attorney, seconded by W. W. Blain.

In addition to Messrs. Barnett and Blain, Judge George F. Longan, C. C. Kelly, W. D. Steele, Lee Montgomery, C. I. Wilson, H. D. Dow and W. D. O'Bannon were present when the action was taken, pursuant to an invitation from Judge Hoffman to act as an advisory board on the issuing of the order.

The trouble originated several days ago, but reached a crisis late Friday afternoon, when Circuit Clerk Daugherty served verbal notice on Judge Hoffman that the court's fees would not be paid hereafter until final settlement of all costs had been made.

Judge Hoffman, who, since becoming judge of the Pettis county circuit court has been receiving his costs immediately or shortly after the filing of each suit, objected to such a procedure, and so notified the circuit clerk.

However, the judge's objection did not change Clerk Daugherty's plans, and Judge Hoffman then summoned members of the bar to advise with him on the subject.

Mr. Daugherty's action in refusing to pay the judge's costs until a final settlement is made is perfectly legal, according to some of the older members of the bar.

According to the clerk's views, it is unfair for the circuit judge to receive his costs, which amount to $2 for each civil action brought in circuit court, immediately upon the filing of the suit, while the circuit clerk, sheriff and other court officers are compelled to often wait months and months for their costs, which are much larger than the judge's.

The circuit judge of this county is entitled to a fee of $2 for each civil action brought in that court, in addition to his fixed salary of $2,000 per annum. The law says that at the expiration of each quarter a settlement shall be made with the circuit judge, and he shall be paid the fees he has acquired during that term.

In the past, Circuit Clerk Daugherty has been making a monthly settlement with Judge Hoffman, allowing him $2 for each suit instituted, while he himself, the sheriff, witnesses and others have been kept waiting until the civil action is finally settled.

Frequently suits hang fire for several years, and during all that time no costs are actually paid, being merely kept account of, while the circuit judge already has his costs and others are compelled to wait and wait, and on many occasions, so Mr. Daugherty said, the costs, with the exception of those paid the judge at the beginning of the suit, are entirely lost.

Attorney Lee Montgomery expressed the opinion that whenever a lawyer files a suit he can stipulate that $2 of the $5 filing fee shall be paid to the circuit judge, but Judge George F. Longan expressed the opinion that it was unwise and unfair for the judge to receive his fee and others be compelled to wait.

Upon the adoption of the motion to issue the order each of the nine lawyers present voted "aye."

WHO NOT EXPERIMENT WITH ECONOMY?

If there is such pressing need for raising additional revenue for the government as to tax tea, coffee, stockings and other necessities of life, which already are oppressively high in price, why not accomplish
the same by cutting down expenditures?

Instead of heaping further burdens
upon the consumers of the country,
why not experiment with a policy of retrenchment for two or three years
by endeavoring to conduct our national affairs more economically?

The state of our national finances is anything but satisfactory. There was a heavy deficit last year and this year it threatens to reach the large sum of $130,000,000 by the first of June. Wouldn't it be a more satisfactory policy to reduce this deficit by striking at its source, say by calling a temporary halt in some of the extravagances of centralization and the navy than by levying special assessments upon the nation's taxpayers to make it up and encourage its recurrence
again next year?

The review of the national expenditures by Representative Tawney, chairman of the house committee on appropriations, March 8, last, shows
the liberal latitude in which congress has practiced economy. In his statement Representative Tawney said:

"Appropriations for the public expenditures are made from estimates
submitted by the executive departments of the government at the beginning of each session of congress.
The aggregate amount of these estimates for appropriations during the past eight years, including the fiscal year 1910, equals the enormous sum of $7,291,341,806. Upon these estimates congress has appropriated during that period the sum of $7,007,837, 183, being $283,504,622 less than the amount estimated. The rapidity with which the national expenditures have been increasing during the period re-
propriations for the fiscal year 1903, which were $796,623,684, and the total appropriations at this session for the fiscal year 1910, $1,044,014,293; the difference between the amount required for the public service eight years ago and the amount required
now being $247,380,463.

"The increase in national expenditures may be attributed to several causes, but the two primary causes,
leading to this result have been,
first, popular and executive demands upon congress for appropriations from the federal treasury for the exercise of rights and functions belonging exclusively to the states, and, second,
the abnormal and unnecessary war
expenditures in times of peace."

The growth of expenditures during the eight years of the last administration shown by this statement is both surprising and significant. It is surprising because it is difficult to comprehend how such a tremendous increase could be possible or necessary in so short a time, and so greatly out of proportion to our growth in population and national development.

It is significant because of the principle purpose to which it has been devoted,
and in that significance is involved the question whether the people would not prefer less of the expensively spectacular government
during the administration of Theodore Roosevelt, less of its militarism, less of its concentration, and in substitute thereof a season of quiet recuperation and business administration within conservative lines.

A change of this nature would, we think, automatically reduce the deficit by removing its principle contributing causes, and the prospect of tea and coffee taxes would not be starting us in the face.

OLLIE JAMES WAS HEARD.

In a speech in congress, Ollie James, the towering giant of Kentucky, who will be remembered as having spoken in Sedalia last fall, indulged in a number of witticisms on
the tariff bill now before the house.
He said he was pleased to note that fossils were on the free list. He considered that the present tariff bill,
instead of "making the infant industries stand on their own feet, gives them the privilege of standing on everybody else's feet."

He was satisfied that when the Payne bill had been passed the trusts would be able to say: "We have looked it over, and thank God there is plenty of loot for us all."

In his address he took occasion to say that so far as the farmer and the working classes were concerned, the tariff bill was not only a delusion and a snare, but a consummate fraud as well. He also inquired anxiously of republican members as to what was meant by a "reasonable profit."

VENERABLE KIDS.

The New Jersey legislature is considering a bill to prohibit children under 16 years of age from attendance at theaters unless accompanied by their parents or guardians.

The nickel show has become a social problem in the east and it is in a way becoming a social problem in the west. Insubordination to teachers and parents is not decreasing under the influence of film picture exhibits and flashy popular songs. Boy bandits are becoming more numerous than ever.

No wonder, exclaims the Milwaukee
Evening Wisconsin, that the New Jersey solons think it time that radical action should be taken to keep young America from growing old too fast.

The Wright brothers have been made doctors of flying or something of the sort by a technical school in Munich. Presumably that will help them a lot when they have to set a broken wing of a flying machine.

Positively no offer from voudeville houses should be allowed to reach Crazy Snake until he has an opportunity to recuperate from his wounds
and unstrung nervous condition.

The Balkan prize ring has closed indefinitely, but there promises to be some lively bouts down in Central America shortly.

By the way, why not levy a per capita tax on politicians to help make up the deficit that congress is struggling to meet?

HOW STRANGE

That we occasionally meet with a woman who has failed to try the sam-

almost three months ago.

Is she to be sympathized with on deserves the burden of washday taken excuse to be skeptical, when other women in Sedalia are sending "Wash-

Ask yourself what ails you? The greatest relief ever brought to any

I notice with pleasure that the "Third House" has been revived, and believe it serves a very useful purpose in calling attention to ways and means of making Sedalia a better place to live in. And with that purpose in mind, I would say a word in regard to establishing open-air places of amusement in the business district.

I do not want to be understood as being against amusement enterprises of any nature, but when they are not located in parks at the edge of town,
but instead they are in the downtown
district, they should be under cover, otherwise they are a nuisance, pure and simple, as well as not being a thing of beauty from an artistic point of view.

Just at this time this question looms up considerably, as one of these out-door places is now in course of erection and another one is preparing to erect a place on West
Third street, just west of the Sedalia National bank building. This place would be just one half block from the corner of Third and Ohio streets,
the very business center of the city.
With all the noise usual to a place of that kind I believe it would prove a bad thing for the town in many ways.

In building up the city, we should take pride that it makes as good an appearance as possible, as we have many visitors within our gates at times, especially during fair week, we should try to make our downtown streets more like those of a thriving city, and not so much to resemble a midway.

Another thing: I think there are many of the opinion that the city authorities have been too lax in allowing the erection of frame buildings and the like right down in town, or within what is called the "fire limits,"
as established by city ordinance, allowing only structures of brick, stone or cement to be erected within certain limits, for the purpose of aiding fire prevention. This ordinance has been ignored many times by the city fathers, who have allowed frame fire traps to be erected almost everywhere.

How does this strike our ladies who are so interested in making more attractive and beautifying our city?—

A BUSINESS MEN'S BANQUET

At the First Christian Church Monday Night.

A business men's banquet will be held at the First Christian church Monday at 7 p. m. The object of this gathering is purely social. It is the thought of the pastor that the coming together of the men of the church will tend to strengthen the tie that binds and make men to see that the social side of church life meets all public requirements thus engendering sympathies for one another and for the church of the Blessed Lord.

The following is a list of speakers:
Toastmaster—A. W. Kokendoffer,
pastor.

"The Church as a Lawyer Sees It"
—O. M. Barnett.

"The Church as a Doctor Sees It"
—Drs. Campbell, J. D. Loubbourrow and A. J. Tucker.

"The Church as a Business Man Sees It"—O. H. Terry and George M.
Pemberton.

"The Church as Young Men See It"
—Dr. F. Carter and H. O. Foraker.

"The Church as a Business Student Sees It"—Prof. C. W. Robbins.

"The Church as a Preacher Sees
It"—J. J. Setliff.

"The Church as a Stranger Sees
It"—J. N. Dalby.

"The Church and Its Finances"—
G. W. Barnett.

The ladies of the church will serve the luncheon.

Amazing Appetites.

The appetite of a whale is wonderful. His chief diet consists of jellyfish. He has simply to open his mouth and paddle along leisurely in order to take in jellyfish by the cartload. Such is the method adopted by the whalebone whale. The sperm whale, on the contrary, captures huge schools of fish, weighing often several tons. Like his brother, the whalebone whale he must be constantly on the lookout for food. Otherwise he would starve. As many as 14 seals have been taken from a 30-foot "killer." Other fishes of enormous appetites are not uncommon. The bluefish, for example thrives on sardines and other small fish. Most curious of all eaters is the hydra, a strange creature that can be turned inside out without impairing
its appetite or its power to eat.

Saving Energy.

I lunch daily at a place where Japanese of the higher order take their meals, and have been impressed by the apparently well-conserved energy of their demeanor. In talking there is nothing wasted in gesture. The talker's periods are acknowledged by the listener with a quiet "Ha" or "Ha, ha," as denoting deeper interest, much as we say "Yes," or "Yes, yes." There is always a dignity of bearing, and while what is wanted is asked for politely, there is no room left for doubt of the intention to get what is wanted. The Latins throw off in the air, as it were, a lot of spirit force, but the Anglo-Saxons, of whose ways we Americans partake largely, indulge in little or no gesticulation. Doesn't all this have something to do with world predominance?—New York Press.

Where Families Are Large.

Although the population of France is declining, there are parts where large families are not the exception,
but the rule. The little village of Verrieres, near Pontalier on the Swiss frontier, where Gen. Bourbaki met with disaster in 1871, is a case in point. It is a picturesque spot. Families of ten or a dozen are common.
Last week M. Simon, a farmer, celebrated his golden wedding in the presence of 42 children and grandchildren.
Mme. L. Botte, a farmer's wife, has had 26 children. M. Crelier, the receiver of taxes, is the happy father of 25 children. M. Hamard, a farmer, is father to 20, and M. Longchamps' wife has borne him 19.—London Globe.

Urges Attendance at Church.

The bishop of Durham, England, la-ments the fact that a "very formidable degree of English Christian life in the neglect and isolation of the Lord's day"
has set in, and blames "the pernicious custom of the week-end." "The very day," he says, "when the charities of home should be in their strength, when the family should meet with special devotion for home worship, and should also meet a family amidst other families, in the church which is the center of the surrounding religious life—
life in which the family should have a responsible part—is now too often the day for separation, indolence, irresponsible self-indulgence."

On Being Happy.

Pleasures are more beneficial than duties because, like the quality of mercy, they are not strained, and they are thrice blessed. There must always be two to a kiss, and there may be a score in a jest; but wherever there is an element of sacrifice, the favor is conferred with pain and received with confusion. There is no duty we so much underrate as the duty of being happy. By being happy, we shower anonymous benefits upon the world. A happy man or a happy woman is a better thing to find than a five-pound note. He or she is a radiating focus of good will; and their entrance into a room is as though another candle had been lighted.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Author's Witty Remark.

Kinglelake, the author of "Eothen," was afflicted with gout, and he had a fancy to try a lady doctor, and wrote to one to ask if gout was beyond her scope. She replied: "Dear sir, gout is not beyond my scope, but men are." It was Kinglelake who uttered one of the nearest mots on the peculiar character of the Times. He had little fondness for that journal, in spite of personal friendships which might have been expected to soften his view of the question. The paper was still to him a sort of juggernaut, irresistible and fateful. On seeing the announcement of the new editor's marriage, he exclaimed: "Heavens! that brings the Times into relations with humanity."

fee ever yet made is Dr. Shoop's line county, were united in marriage

POLICE ARE DISGUSTED

BLUE COATS OF LONDON CLAIM
DUTIES HAVE BEEN LARGE-LY INCREASED.

THE QUESTION SOON TO BE VENTILATED

Latest Crime Waves Opened Eyes of People, Who Wonder What Will Happen in the Event of a Big Riot.

Cable to the Democrat-Sentinel.

(Hearst News Service.)

London, April 3.—There is a growing feeling of dissatisfaction among the members of the metropolitan police in regard to the largely increased duties which they are now called upon to perform, and were it not for the fact that Sir Edward Henry, the chief commissioner of police, is very popular with the men there would have been serious trouble before now. The whole question of the grievances of the police is to be ventilated very shortly.

In addition to a bill which has been introduced in the house of commons by a member advocating one day's rest in seven for every constable, other members of parliament have signified their intention of demanding an increase in the force.

Sir Edward Henry has asked for an increase ever since he came into office, but Mr. Herbert Gladstone, the home secretary, has kept putting off the question again and again.

The latest crime returns have, however, opened every one's eyes, and householders are beginning to wonder what would happen if a really big riot were to take place in London.

It is notorious that many burglaries took place on the occasion of the last suffragette demonstration, owing to the policemen being withdrawn from the suburbs. The latest returns show that there were two thousand more crimes against property in 1908 than in 1907.

Moreover, there is an immense increase in the number of undetected burglaries and murders.

The metropolitan police force numbers only 18,238 men, including superior officers and detectives. Sir Edward not only wants two thousand more, but he is anxious to secure the services of more educated men and detectives.

The space which these 18,238 men are supposed to protect is nearly 450,000 acres, holding a population between seven and eight million people.

Could Perceive Only the Music. The first Italian music master who went to Edinburgh one day was passing the Tron church as the service was drawing to a close. The lonely Italian drew near the door and was startled. He said to the beadle: "What is that horrible noise I hear?" The beadle, much scandalized, answered: "That's the people praising God." The sad foreigner rejoined: "Then their God must have no ear for music," and, sorrowfully shaking his head, he walked away.

Football in Olden Times.

What would be thought to-day of a game of football in which 500 or 600 players were engaged on each side, and how would we like to be in the thick of it when teams of this number were rushing after the ball? When we remember also that few rules governed the play, and that, moreover, a proportion of the players were horsemen, the events that marked the progress of the game must have been of sufficiently stirring a character to satisfy the most greedy seeker after excitement.

MASS MEETING TODAY

George G. Mahy Will Speak for the Y. M. C. A. This Afternoon.

"Wanted, a New Motive Power," is to be the subject of Mr. George Gordon Mahy, the general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Scranton, Pa., who will address the men of Sedalia at the mass meeting to be held at the New Sedalia theater this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Mr. Mahy is a very well known man to older residents of Sedalia, having been at one time general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. here, and deserves great credit for the wonderful work he has accomplished in the past few years.

Mr. Mahy has spent a great part of his life among men, not only in a business way, but also in a spiritual way. Every man in Sedalia interested in men, young or old, should not miss hearing this man among men.

Mr. V. M. Ridenour, the evangelist singer now singing at the East Sedalia Christian church, will render several solos. Mr. Ridenour comes to us well recommended by those who have heard him; therefore, we should feel very proud to have the privilege of hearing these two great men of power free of charge.

Mr. Isaac Farris will preside at the piano. Mr. Ridenour will lead the chorus choir of young men, men will usher, men will talk, men will sing. If you like to be with men come to the mass meeting this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Without His Retaining Fee Young Lawyer Could Not Act.

An impecunious young lawyer recently received the following letter from a tailor to whom he was indebted:

"Dear Sir:—Kindly advise me by return mail when I may expect a remittance from you in settlement of my account. Yours truly, J. Shippin."

The follower of Blackstone immediately replied:

"Dear Sir:—I have your request for advice of a recent date, and beg leave to say that not having received any retainer from you I cannot act in the premises. Upon receipt of your check for $250 I shall be very glad to look the matter up for you and to acquaint you with the results of my investigations. I am, sir, with great respect, your most obedient servant, Barclay B. Coke."—Success Magazine.

A TREE THAT IS WORSHIPED.

Ficus Religiosa Held Sacred by Buddhists and Hindoos.

In most of the countries of south-eastern Asia, the Indian Ficus religiosa, the sacred and consecrated fig tree, or peepul tree, is found. It is held pre-eminently sacred by the Buddhists, and is revered also by the Hindoos, the birth of Vishnu having occurred beneath its branches.

It is a handsome tree, growing frequently to a great height. It is an evergreen, which puts forth its flowers in April, and the bark yields freely upon incision an acrid milk containing a considerable proportion of india rubber. The leaves are heart-shaped, long, pointed and vibrate in the air like those of the aspen.

A branch of one of these trees, having a notable history, was sent to a city in the interior of Ceylon, where it was planted, and became known by the name of the bo-tree. For 200 years it received the highest reverence, and is still the chief object of worship to the pilgrims who every year flock to the ruins of the city.

Our Serious Young Men.

"One of the things that strikes me as so very curious about your young," remarked a visitor from Canada, "is the expression of extreme seriousness that they wear when entering or leaving a place like this," and he waved his hand, as if to take in the restaurant at one comprehensive sweep. "Since I have been sitting here probably twenty young men, nice, hearty looking lads, have passed us, and they all have worn the same expression—as if the responsibilities of running the whole world were on their shoulders. Not one of them has smiled, although they were in parties clearly out to enjoy themselves, and as for laughing, that seems unheard of. What on earth is the matter with them, do you think?"

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 113.

Saloon Man Votes "Dry."

A Chicago young man who is traveling in the south writes home to his father of a conversation he had with a Memphis saloon keeper, the proprietor of one of the largest and finest saloons in that city, which, under the new state law, is to become "dry" on the first day of next July.

The young Chicagoan incidentally fell into conversation with the man at the hotel breakfast table and asked him what about the new prohibitory law.

"Well, sir, when that law goes into effect I will be a ruined man financially," he said, "Everything I've got will go and I will have to start all over again in some new business."

Being asked if he didn't feel rather sore about it, he replied: "No, sir, I don't. I am a whiskey man; have sold it all my life, and I know that it is the root of all evil. It ruins more lives than any other thing. It is the curse of this country. Though I am not a married man and have no family, yet when I go to the polls I vote for prohibition."

His new acquaintance seemed surprised at this, and he went on:

"I have sisters and brothers who have children. Do you think I am going to vote for a thing that may ruin the lives of those children and drag them down to destruction? No, sir; I've seen too much misery caused by alcoholic liquors to do a thing like that."

This saloon-keeper predicted that in ten years we would have nation-wide prohibition.—Illinois Issue.

THE DRYS.

MILLER SUIT OF $25,000

REVERSED AND REMANDED BY THE UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.

PLAINTIFF WAS AN M., K. & T. BRAKEMAN

Handle Bar of a Car Broke on September 29, 1905, at East Lynne, Mo., and Miller Sustained Injuries That Are Permanent.

C. C. Lawson received a telegram Saturday stating that the $25,000 damage suit of Millard F. Miller against the M., K. & T. railway had been reversed and remanded by the United States circuit court at St. Louis, meaning that the case will now be tried on its merits.

Miller lives at 1703 East Seventh street this city. He formerly worked for the M., K. & T. railway as brakeman, and on Sept. 29, 1905, was permanently injured at East Lynn, in Cass county, by falling from a freight car, when the handle bar of the car broke, throwing him to the ground.

He employed C. C. Lawson and Silver & Brown, of Jefferson City, to represent him, and through them instituted suit in the United States federal court at Jefferson City in Oct., 1906, for $25,000 damages.

The case went to trial, but the defendant filed a demurrer, which was sustained.

The case was then appealed to the United States circuit court, where the reversal and remanding was ordered.

Miller's injuries were so serious that one leg is two inches shorter than the other, and on learning the exact extent of his injuries the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, of which Miller is a member, paid him the amount always paid for total disability accidents.

Nietzsche and the Invalid.

An invalid lady who often met Nietzsche found him the gentlest, kindest and most sympathetic of men. He "implored her with tears in his eyes not to read his books." Such was his knowledge of women that he was thunderstruck to find shortly afterward that the lady at once proceeded to read them all. He was further stupefied by the discovery that, having read them, she was utterly unmoved by the philosopher's unanswerable demonstrations that feeble persons like herself had no right to live and that women were distinguished by this, that and the other objectionable attribute. It must have been a blow to him.

A continuation of the discussion of corn was indulged in, those taking part dealing especially with soil or check corn and also with the various makes of cultivators. Several members displayed samples, the ears of which were examined and discussed. The club decided to purchase from J. E. Matheny, of Miami, Saline county, $3 worth of seed to grow corn with a view of winning the prize of one bushel of seed, offered by Mr. Matheny for the best ten ears of corn, grown from his seed. RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

THE THREE-CENT FARE IS TO GO INTO EFFECT IN MISSOURI APRIL 10.

COACH CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources For the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Beginning on April 10, the date of which the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain railway system will re-establish the three-cent-a-mile fare, one and two thousand mileage books, good on all roads in the state, will be placed on sale.

The same road will also place on sale on that date 500-mile tickets, good on all roads in the state, for $12.50.

A 500-mile ticket, good only on the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain system, will be put on sale at $11.25.

Effective the same date, round trip local tickets will be sold at a discount of ten per cent less the double fare.

Clergymen will be given tickets at one-half rate, good only in Missouri.

Parties of ten or more riding on one ticket will be charged two and one-half cents a mile and parties of twenty-five or more, riding on one ticket, will be charged two cents a mile.

A general circular covering the foregoing was issued by B. H. Payne, general passenger agent of the system, Saturday.

Meade Stilwell Is Better.

Frank E. Gibbons, manager of the Western Union telegraph office, Saturday received a telegram from T. D. Bothwell, manager of the company office at Seymour, Ind., saying that Meade Stilwell, formerly superintendent of the Missouri Pacific here, had improved somewhat in health, and intended leaving there Saturday night for a visit with his daughter, Ida, at Bloomfield, N. Y.

No more popular official ever dwelt in Sedalia than Meade Stilwell and a legion of friends along the line of the Missouri Pacific will join the Democrat-Sentinel in the wish that he may soon be fully restored to health.

Call Freight Rate Hearing.

The railroad commissioners of Missouri have ordered a hearing of all railroads of the state at Kansas City, April 22, on the question of the proposed reduction of freight rates on all classes and commodities, including articles named in the maximum freight rate cases.

The railroad commissioners plan to reduce the rates of freight to a point just above the rate named in the maximum freight rate law which the state was recently enjoined from enforcing.

The commissioners are acting on the advice of Attorney General Elliott W. Major.

Stricken at the Throttle.

While at the throttle of an engine pulling a Great Northern passenger train toward St. Paul, Minn., Friday, at the rate of fifty miles an hour, Engineer William LaChapelle aged 40 years, was suddenly attacked with acute appendicitis and would have fallen from his cab but for the work of the fireman, who held the sick man with one arm and brought the train to stop with the other.

At Atwater, ninety miles from St. Paul, the fireman stopped the train and the engineer was assisted to a coach.

Shopman Going to Germany.

Carl Wagenknecht, a Missouri Pacific machinist, resigned Saturday, after being employed at the shops for the past six years. Mr. Wagenknecht left during the day for a two weeks' fishing trip on the Lamine river and will then return here to take his family to California, after which all will leave for a year's visit at Mr. Wagenknecht's old home in Germany. He expects to sail about the middle of May.

GEORGE YEAGER'S FIND

Hereafter "Jimmy" and Carey Will Have a Plaything.

George L. Yeager, the handsome West Third street tinsorial artist, whose staff of assistants include such brilliant illuminations as "Jimmy" Settles and Carey Anderson, while taking a daily walk in the early hours of the morning Saturday had the pleasure to find a loaded revolver lying on the court house lawn.

George, who is a difficult person to get acquainted with, but whose sunny disposition after the formal introduction soon endears him to everyone, carefully handled the weapon and took it to his place of business, where he and his assistants made an inspection to ascertain if it was an "infernal machine."

It proved to be nothing more than an ordinary gun and hereafter the artist will utilize it to calm obstreperous individuals who make themselves numerous in that locality.

Grounds to Be Enlarged and a Noted Landscape Architect Is to Lay Them Off and Still Further Beautify Them.

A syndicate composed of Kansas City parties, headed by Bayless Steele, has purchased the Sweet Springs, Mo., springs property, with the intention of enlarging and improving the grounds and putting it on the map again as a famous summer resort. It is located on the Missouri Pacific railway seventy-five miles east of Kansas City, in Saline county, Mo.

For a great many years Sweet Springs figured largely in the social and political history of Missouri, and was recognized as the most famous resort between the Mississippi river and the Rocky Mountains. The leaders of Missouri's political and social life gathered there from Kansas City, St. Louis and other sections of the state. It was the home of the Marquises, the summer residence of Judge Lindley, Judge Henry, Dr. Munford and others with whose names Missouri history is inseparably bound up. It was to this quiet place that Missouri's most famous senator—Vest—returned after his periods of conflict in the senate. He came here to rest and recuperate his strength and to enjoy the quiet of his summer cottage. And it was under those outspreading elms and maples that he spent his last hours of life.

The syndicate purposes to enlarge the grounds and has already engaged a noted Kansas City landscape architect to lay them off and beautify them. No expense will be spared to make it attractive as a resort for pleasure, for health and for recreation.

The business men of the town of Sweet Springs have recently organized a Chautauqua association and contracted with the Midland Chautauqua bureau, of Des Moines, to put on a Chautauqua program equal to or better than any west of old Chautauqua, N. Y. Senator Bob Taylor, of Tennessee; Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin; Governor Manship, of Mississippi; Dr. McArthur, of New York, and other platform national celebrities, including Dr. James S. Myers, of Kansas City, an experienced Chautauqua man, who will be the manager and also appear on the program, will be prominent attractions in the first assembly held this year, from July 23 to August 3. The Chautauqua will be made permanent and all the improvements will be of a substantial character. They propose to make this the great Missouri Chautauqua.

The announcement that Sweet Springs is to be restored to its former prominence and even improved over its palmiest days will be received by the best people of Missouri and the central west with genuine pleasure. It is recognized by the medical profession and those seeking health as the Carlsbad of the west. Recently, in boring for additional mineral waters, a gusher of sulphur water was developed, adding greatly to the already large range of mineral waters to be found at this resort.

Inducements are being offered one of the electric lines building out of Kansas City toward Jefferson City to pass through Sweet Springs; also to enlist the interest of the good roads people to build a rock road from Kansas City to Sweet Springs, making it accessible to automobiles.

The Springs grounds are notably beautiful for situation, lying in the bend of Blackwater river, which is a favorite resort for fishermen from the whole country round. It will furnish fine boating privileges for pleasure parties, and in every way contribute to the attractiveness of the resort for pleasure and health purposes.

The sale of these properties to the syndicate was made through the real estate firm of Beaty & Huston. Mr. Beaty, as secretary of the Sweet Springs Commercial club, has been working on this project for some time and has succeeded in enlisting the necessary capital to improve and develop this once famous resort.

DRYS DARE BEER CROWD

NEXT TUESDAY'S ELECTION IN ST. LOUIS NOW CAUSES LOTS OF WORRY.

THREE SOLOS TO WATCH THE BREWERS

Abnormal Pluralities in Certain Parts of City to Be Signal for Action on the Part of the Prohibitionists.

St. Louis, Mo., April 3.—Members of the senate have thrown down the gauntlet to the brewers of St. Louis, and if it is shown next Wednesday that the beer men took an active interest in the municipal election Tuesday, a bill submitting state-wide prohibition will be introduced and passed by the senate. This statement was made by Senator M. E. Casey, democrat, of Kansas City.

According to Senator Casey, three democratic members of the senate will remain in St. Louis until after the election and keep a close watch on the movements of the brewers. It is a fight to the finish, he declares if the brewers support the republican ticket, as they have announced they will do.

The feeling among the members of the senate toward prohibition is said to be strong at present, and Senator Casey declares if the brewers show they can control politics in St. Louis the outlook for state-wide prohibition will be more favorable.

"The brewers and whisky men have got to stay out of politics," said Senator Casey, "and now is a good time to teach them a lesson. They should not attempt to control any political party. If they undertake to elect the republican ticket next Tuesday, they will certainly have trouble."

"Members of the senate and house of representatives are very much exercised over the brewers' support of the republican ticket in St. Louis. There is already a strong sentiment among legislators for a prohibition submission, and if the liquor people

WORK OF BLACKMAILERS

THIS CLASS OF PEOPLE BEEN BUSY IN LONDON PAST FEW WEEKS.

SOME LARGE SUMS HAVE BEEN EXTORTED

Attempt Was Made on a Prominent American, but He Handed the Letter to His Better Half, Who Sent Prompt Answer.

Cable to the Democrat-Sentinel.
[Hearst News Service.]

London April 3.—Blackmailers have been meeting with extraordinary success in London society during the past few months. By means of threatening letters they have been extorting large sums from husbands and wives of whose indiscretions they have become cognizant.

The blackmailers recently caught a tartar in one woman who received a letter and replied to it by saying that her solicitor was one of the foremost in London and that if her husband in any way showed cognizance of the lies the blackmailer threat to tell of her a warrant for the maligner's arrest would be applied for at once.

Needless to say complete silence on the part of the blackmailer has ensued.

A prominent American who in his unmarried days was guilty of many indiscretions received a blackmailing letter from a woman with whom he had once associated.

He at once handed it over to his wife and great was the prospective blackmailer's surprise to receive the answer to her demand for money from the man's wife.

In the majority of cases the blackmailers are successful in their demands, as the people to whom they apply would rather pay than be exposed, and for the same reason seldom if ever hand the blackmailers over to the police.

It used to be that you had to ask every one in your employ if they knew where you could find additional employees.

COURSE IN GOOD TASTE

LADIES OF BERLIN JUST COMPLETED IT, UNDER AUSPICES OF ROYALTY.

IT WAS HELD IN HOHENZOLLERN HOUSE

Conclusion Has Been Reached That "Good Form" in Berlin Is Not Only a Matter of Taste, but of Money as Well.

By Malcolm Clarke.
Cable to the Democrat-Sentinel.
(Hearst News Service.)

Berlin, April 3.—The ladies of Berlin have just completed, under royal auspices, a "course in good taste." For their benefit there has been held in "Hohenzollern House," the Berlin headquarters of the Kaiser's pottery works, an elaborate exhibition, which has enjoyed the patronage of the empress, the crown princess and the wives of Prince Eitel Friedrich and Prince August Wilhelm.

Thousands of women desirous of instruction in what constitutes "good form" have thronged the exhibitions for six weeks. The promoters believe it is destined to be a landmark in German women's struggles for emancipation from the status of mere frugal hausfrauen.

Luxury, however, was the keynote of the exhibition. In order to give object lessons in the proper adornment of the home and person, the Kaiserin, the princesses and scores of social leaders contributed liberally from their own drawingrooms, boudoirs and wardrobes. Ornaments, furniture, jewels, gowns, hats, shoes, furs and linen were shown in bewildering profusion.

The crown princess to whom is given the chief credit for the renaissance of fashion among German women, sent a number of Parisian costumes. One of her ermine opera cloaks, marked "value $5,000," attracted special attention. Frau von Reichroeder exhibited a diadem of diamonds and a necklace of pearls worth $250,000. Model boudoirs and bedchambers were transplanted from fashionable homes.

One well known lady permitted a reproduction of her black and white marble Roman bathroom, with mirrored walls and soft electric lights. Another showed her dog's wardrobe, silver-buckled rubber boots and embroidered kerchiefs being part of the canine equipment.

The court bootmaker exhibited dancing shoes, with diamond, pearl and emerald garnitures on the ankle or instep. Paris and Vienna costumers were among the exhibitors, but the German styles predominated. Unconscious tributes to the latter fell from the lips of many who mistook them for foreign importations.

The exhibitions are said to have proved that German women no longer need to go abroad for style or costliness. Male visitors came to the conclusion that "good form" in Berlin is not only a matter of taste, but of money.

A suicide of a singular kind has taken place in the little town of Tepitz. During the morning service in the church a young woman left her seat, sobbing. She climbed the steeple until she reached a skylight.

The young woman jumped from this opening, her body bounding on a gallery, afterwards crashing on the ground just as the worshippers were leaving the church.

She was picked up with her legs and spinal column smashed.

A queer case of a man who could not kill himself, though he made several attempts, has come to light in Mohenstrasse. The man Herr Lutke, a house porter, suffered from asthma, and resolved to take his life. He first shot himself in the ear, but the bullet not proving fatal he seized his razor and cut his throat.

Though blood gashed from two horrible wounds, he did not die. Making a superhuman effort, Lutke recharged his revolver, filling the barrel with water in order to cause an explosion.

Placing the barrel in his mouth, he fired, the shot smashing his jaw. He was taken to the hospital in a terrible condition, but he will not die, for the doctors declare they can save him.

The Kaiser has resolved to enlist to a greater extent than ever the help of the newspapers in informing him of the general trend of public opinion on political questions of the day. The Kaiser has always been a great reader of newspapers and large numbers of newspaper clippings have been submitted to him from day to day by the German foreign office. These clippings have been primarily selected from the newspapers whose opinions are regarded as "correct" from the official point of view, so that the information they have supplied on public affairs have frequently been extremely one-sided.

The emperor has now ordered that henceforth clippings from all sorts of newspapers, representing all shades of political opinion, shall be regularly laid before him, even including extracts from socialist organs, which hitherto have been vigorously excluded from his notice.

The work of collecting newspaper clippings has not been entrusted to one single department, but to six departments, so that it will not be possible for any one ministry or group of officials to mislead the emperor by submitting to him newspaper clippings reflecting their own political tastes.

The fact that half a dozen different departments are engaged in the work of preparing a selection of clippings for the monarch will result in checking one another. It is expected that his majesty's systematic study of the newspaper opinions of all parties will do more to break down the barriers between the sovereign and the nation than any other conceivable method.

Fraulein Annie Tharaus, a popular musical comedy actress, is lying at the point of death at Breslau as the result of an assault committed by an actor named Hofer, whose suit she had rejected. The assailant afterward attempted suicide and his condition, too, is precarious.

Yesterday Hofer called at the lady's home in Breslau. She opened the door to him herself, and a moment later the housekeeper, hearing cries for help, found the actress leaning against the wall and bleeding from a half dozen wounds on the face and neck.

Meanwhile, the actor hurried to his apartments, where he tried to kill himself. The police, however, finding him before he had bled to death, had the wound dressed and then arrested him. His victim today underwent a lengthy operation.

GIVE YOUR STOMACH A GOOD EAT WITHOUT FEAR OF INDIGESTION OR DISTRESS.

CURED BEFORE YOU REALIZE IT

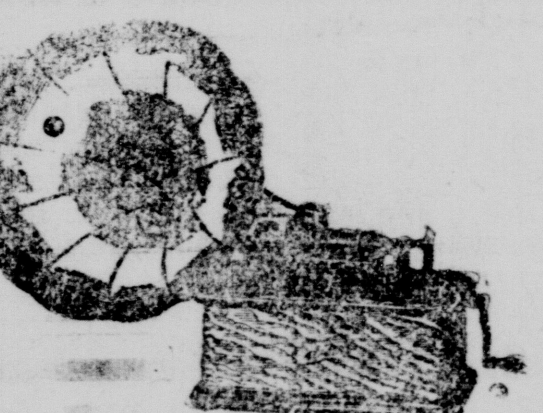

Whatever You Eat Will Be Digested, Leaving Nothing to Ferment—If You Will Take a Little Diapepsin You Will Be Rid of Indigestion Forever.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from Indigestion and Stomach trouble is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking Diapepsin.

If your Stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak Stomachs should eat Diapepsin after meals, and there will be no more Indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, Sour risings, Gas on Stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Vomiting, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved five minutes after eating one Triangule of Diapepsin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50c case of Pape's Diapepsin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

FIGHT FOR A STATE FAIR

Peoria, Ill., Is After the Big Exposition at Springfield.

Springfield, Ill., April 3.—What promises to precipitate a spectacular fight in the legislature is Representative Black's bill providing for removal of Illinois $1,000,000 state fair from Springfield to Peoria.

The measure was sent to second reading Friday. An effort will be made by Peoria's friends who will send a train load of "boosters" to Springfield next week to read the bill a second time Wednesday and put it on its passage Thursday.

Commercial organizations in Peoria are backing the bill and Springfield's chamber of commerce and other business organizations are prepared to defend Springfield's claim to the big show.

A CROWN OF GLORY

As Well as a Mark of Beauty is Luxurious Hair.

It has been truly said that the crowning glory of our race is a luxuriant head of hair.

It used to be thought that this was one of the blessings which the gods bestow capriciously and it is only recently that scientists have discovered that its beauty is dependent upon the absence of a minute germ which flourishes in the hair follicles—where it destroys the life of the hair.

To restore this hair and kill the germs which cause the mischief is the mission of Newbro's Herpicide.

Herpicide surely kills the germs, and is the best hair dressing on the market.

It contains no grease or oil, neither will it stain or dye.

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM—it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

CLUB HAS COME TO STAY

THAT OF THE NEW LAMBS, LOCATED IN JERMYN STREET IN LONDON.

THE HUNTING SET HAS DISCOVERED IT

Rules Governing Are Made on Strict Lines and It Is Hoped to Prevent Club Degenerating Into Supper Club.

Cable to the Democrat-Sentinel. [Hearst News Service.] London, April 3.—The new Lambs' club, in Jermyn street, unlike most semi-Bohemian clubs has come to stay.

The "hunting set" from Leicestershire and Warwickshire has "discovered" it, and therefore its popularity is assured.

The keen frost which has made hunting impossible in the Midlands for the last few weeks has driven hunting men and women to London, and when Lady Sophie Scott and Elizabeth, Countess of Wilton, had exhausted the theaters, some one took them to the Lambs.

The strangely mixed assembly of ladies from the Kalety, ladies who are always "resting," the gilded youth, actors and members of the diplomatic corps, appealed immensely to the rather jaded appetite of Lady Sophie, and the news soon spread among her friends, with the result that obscure members of the Lambs now find themselves in the flattering position of receiving imploring letters from fair members of the "smart set," asking them to chaperone the into the club.

The rules—at least certain of them—have been made on strict lines, and the committee hope to prevent the club from degenerating into a "supper" club and sharing the fate of many such establishments.

Prince Francis of Tech has been seen on several occasions at the Lambs, and the more youthful members of the Austrian and Russian embassies may often be found there having tea with the leading lights of "the profession."

Manzan Pile Remedy is put up in a tube with a nozzle attached. May be applied directly to the affected parts. Guaranteed. Price 50c. Sold by the W. E. Bard Drug Co.

ROOSEVELT INTO THE SEA

A Wave Swept the Ex-President From A Small Boat.

Gibraltar, April 3.—A wave swept Theodore Roosevelt into the sea from a small boat in which he was returning from a visit to Ponta del Gada, off the Azores, last Tuesday. Two sailors caught him just as another wave pitched him toward the side of the steamer Hamburg. Passengers on the boat told of the accident.

Mr. Roosevelt's patriotism put him in danger. He had been visiting the American consul and as the small boat neared the side of the liner on the return trip the band struck up "The Star Spangled Banner." The ex-president rose and bared his head. When the national hymn ended the boat was pitching beside the Hamburg and Mr. Roosevelt made a flying leap for the rope ladder that dangled from the side of the vessel. Just then the big wave tossed the boat, threw him from his balance and he went into the sea.

Remunerative.

"In the sheep raising district of England," remarked an Englishman now living in New York, "there was an old man who used to wander about picking up and selling wool which the sheep scratched off their backs by rubbing against the hedges. The old fellow was somewhat of a butt in the neighborhood, but he stuck to his work, unmindful of jeers, wandering miles over the downs every day—silent, absorbed, untiring."

"Well, how much do you suppose that old boy left when he died? Just guess, now."

"One thousand pounds," opined one auditor.

"Five hundred," said another.

The raconteur shook his head.

"Not a damned cent," he said.

WORK WEAKENS THE KIDNEYS

Doan's Kidney Pills Have Done Great Service for People Who Work In Sedalia.

Most Sedalia people work every day in some strained, unnatural position—bending constantly over a desk—riding on jolting wagons or cars—doing laborious housework; lifting, reaching or pulling, or trying the back in a hundred and one ways. All these strains tend to wear, weaken and injure the kidneys until they fall behind in their work of filtering the poisons from the blood. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, put new strength in bad backs. Sedalia cures prove it.

Mrs. J. V. Albertson, 611 West Seventh street, Sedalia, Mo., says: "My husband had kidney trouble for several years brought on, no doubt, by the nature of his work. He suffered from pains in his back and hips and the kidney secretions became irregular, unnatural and contained a sediment. He tried many remedies, but did not receive much relief until he procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Bard's drug store. The first box made him feel fifty per cent better and he continued until in good health."

CURES OLD SORES

We want to show you in this short, but honest and reasonable talk, how and why S. S. S. cures Old Sores. We do not claim that S. S. S. works wonders, but we do know it will cure sores and ulcers, and its record of forty years past abundantly justifies this confidence.

Any old sore shows an unhealthy and impure condition of the blood. It is a diseased condition of the flesh at that particular spot, caused and kept inflamed and irritated by a continual discharge into it of unhealthy matter from the circulation. In various ways the blood becomes contaminated and polluted. A long spell of fever, or other sickness, breeds disease germs in the system; the failure of nature's eliminative members to remove the waste and refuse matters of the body, the excessive use of minerals in certain diseases, infected wounds, bites and stings of insects, etc., all contaminate the blood with morbid matter and germs which sooner or later manifest their presence by a sore or ulcer which refuses to heal under the ordinary treatment of local applications.

External treatment can never cure a chronic sore or ulcer, because it does not reach the blood. The place will remain open as long as it is used as a drainage for the impurity which is in the blood, and in addition to the worry and anxiety caused by an old sore, there is always danger of its becoming cancerous, if a cure is not effected. Purify the blood, and nourish the flesh with a rich, healthy circulation, and then the place will heal of its own accord.

S. S. S. cures old sores by removing the causes which produce them. It goes down into the circulation, drives out all impurities and poisons, and by nourishing the flesh with rich, pure blood causes the place to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. does not make a surface cure, but, being the greatest of all blood purifiers, it begins at the bottom and by rebuilding broken down tissue, and supplying healthful, healing qualities to the circulation, causes the place to fill in with firm, healthy flesh, while it steadily but surely removes the cause and effects a permanent cure. The sore cannot remain when the blood is pure, and S. S. S. will thoroughly purify the blood. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

S. S. S. is for sale at all drug stores.

WILL SETTLE DISPUTES

INTERNATIONAL COURT OF AR-BITRATION OF THE HAGUE TO PASS ON THEM.

ELICIV GOVERNMENT IS INTERESTED

Right to Fish in the Waters of Newfoundland by Citizens of the United States to Be Settled Permanently.

Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 3.—Again the good offices of the international court of arbitration at The Hague are to be invoked to settle important international disputes, this time in matters in which the American government is vitally interested.

It will not be the first occasion on which recourse has been made to that august tribunal in issues in which this government has been interested, the cases of the Pious fund of the Californias and of the "prefer red creditors" of Venezuela, which were awarded preferential treatment, following a blockade of her ports, both having been passed on by the court and each of importance to the United States.

Neither of them, however, are regarded as of as great consequence as that, primarily, of the interpretation to be placed on Article 4 of the treaty of 1818, touching the rights of Americans to fish in the waters of Newfoundland; and, secondarily, the issues to be arbitrated as a result of the agreement recently reached between Mr. Buchanan, the American special commissioner, and President Gomez, of Venezuela, both of which are to go to The Hague.

The "compromise," negotiated by Secretary Root with Ambassador Bryce, which incorporates the fisheries dispute to be arbitrated, has been ratified by the senate, and the two nations interested have agreed on the arbitration.

In submitting to The Hague so important a principle as that involved in the fisheries controversy, both the American and the British governments are giving that tribunal a prestige in the initial stages of its existence which is regarded diplomatically as an international occurrence of the first magnitude, and one calculated to have great influence in inspiring similar action by other nations burdened with international disputes, which, if not adjusted, may lead to serious results.

The findings of the court will be awaited with the greatest interest and impatience by the New England fishing interests, for it means much to that class of men who yearly make the Newfoundland shore their rendezvous and who supply a large portion of the northeastern markets with fish food products.

Their treaty rights have been questioned, their work interfered with, and they have suffered from the attempted enforcement of local laws or regulations, the privilege to enact which have been warmly contested by this government.

The disputes are of long standing, and each country, confident of the correctness of its own contentions, is expected to abide by the decision of the court.

Because of the long time allowed for the preparation of the case, the submission of arguments, etc., it will be more than a year before the questions in dispute are fully before the tribunal for decision.

Years of effort and of argument by the state department failed of success in reaching a basis of settlement of the disputes with Venezuela, which finally came as a result of suggestions made by President Gomez, after Castro left Venezuela and when that country was being harassed by the action of the Dutch war vessels sent there by Holland, following the breaking off of friendly relations between the two nations.

Secretary Root received in a cordial spirit the advances made by Gomez, and sent Mr. Buchanan to Venezuela promptly with full instructions to deal with the subject of the settlement of the claims, and the result of his labors are said to be satisfactory alike both to the state department and to the South American republic.

The strained situation which had preceded Mr. Buchanan's mission for so long a period was a source of regret to Secretary Root, who has taken a great deal of interest in the well being of our sister republics to the south, and he pointed out that the American government had on repeated occasions intervened as a friend in need in behalf of Venezuela to relieve her from disagreeable and dangerous complications with other powers.

That a majority of the disputes are to go to The Hague is regarded favorably, for it removes any opportunity for charges of force or intimidation, which might have been made against this government had they been settled directly between the two countries.

The willingness of the United States to thus dispose of them, it is pointed out, demonstrates to the nations of this hemisphere its faith in the honor and fairness of the court, leaving to the fate of that tribunal questions affecting the interests of countries in which this government in some respects exercises a paternal interest, and in whose behalf it always stands ready to uphold the Monroe doctrine.

Various phases of three disputes go to The Hague as a result of Mr. Buchanan's negotiations, namely: That of the United States and Venezuela company, which claims it has been deprived of the right to mine asphalt and to build a railroad; that of the Orinoco corporation, which claims large concessions covering iron mines, asphalt privileges and hardwood concessions, and the case of the Orinoco Steamship Co., which claims exclusive rights of navigation on branches of the Orinoco river.

In the two latter cases the court is to decide primarily whether the judgments of previous arbitrations or decisions of umpires were correct and are to stand; and, if not, then they are to be heard on their merits. Three arbitrators are to be appointed and as in the case of the fisheries dispute, more than a year will elapse before a decision is rendered.

On the part of the United States the preparation of the cases will not be a formidable proposition, as there is already a mass of data bearing on them available, which formed the basis of the arguments made to President Castro in behalf of arbitration. Although complicated to some extent, after all, questions of fact largely predominate, unlike the controversy over the Newfoundland fisheries, where specific interpretation of an existing treaty will form the burden of the work of the court.

After Castro declined to arbitrate the disputes, either separately or collectively, the state department passed the whole question up to congress, but no instructions were given for the guidance of the department to proceed to force a settlement. There appeared to be no general public interest manifested in the controversy warranting any drastic action, and the matter was allowed to lapse. Finally, the question was happily solved when President Gomez expressed a desire to resume friendly relations, which had been broken off by both nations withdrawing their diplomatic representatives, and Mr. Buchanan was sent to Venezuela to reopen negotiations for a settlement of the claims.

Controversies passed on by The Hague, including those already referred to, embrace the following: The matter of perpetual leases, resulting from a disagreement between Japan on the one hand and Germany, France and Great Britain on the other, touching the real meaning and scope of certain provisions of treaties and agreements between them; the right of certain Muscat ships to fly the French flag; and the inquiry instituted by operation of the court between Great Britain and Russia, growing out of the North Sea Dogger bank incident, when the firing of the guns of the Russian fleet caused the loss of a boat and the death of two persons belonging to a British fishing fleet.

The Conjurer Confesses.

That "the hand is quicker than the eye" is one of those accepted sayings invented by someone who knew nothing of conjuring—or, as is more likely, by some cunning conjurer who aimed still further to hoodwink a gullible public. The fact is that the best conjurer seldom makes a rapid motion, for that attracts attention, even though it be not understood. The true artist in this line is deliberate in every movement, and it is mainly by his actions that he leads his audience to look not where they ought, but in an entirely different direction. Mr. David Devant, who for a number of consecutive years has entertained London with his ingenious tricks, has said: "The conjurer must be an actor. By the expression of his face, by his gestures, by the tone of his voice, in short, by his acting, he must produce his effects."—St. Nicholas.

YOU MANUFACTURE FAT?

at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The Rev. E. H. Williamson, pastor of the East Broadway Christian church, officiated, and burial was in Crown Hill cemetery.

If it were not for the fact that you add to your fat every day, you would soon get back to a decent figure. Each day's activities consume some of your excess. But it is "off with the old—on with the new" with you every twenty-four hours, so that the fat balance remains unchanged.

Now, people who take Marmola Prescription Tablets really get thin, but harmlessly so, and a hint as to the reason is given above. They eat and drink with undisturbed delight as formerly, and yet they lose, many of them, a pound a day. The reason is Marmola causes the body to stop manufacturing useless fat; hence the body it is introduced into gets thinner as a matter of course. Each day's activities alone would account for the delightful result.

Check up results from this point of view and you can readily understand why Marmola Prescription Tablets cause no ill effects or wrinkles, but on the contrary, help the stomach and the appearance. They are nature's allies, not her competitors. This commends them to all, even the timid, as safe; and since they reduce one as fast as is desirable, that is all that is required.

When you get tired trying other methods of getting thin test this one. Marmola Prescription Tablets come in large, generously filled cases, and if your druggist can not supply you, which is unlikely, you can get one or more cases by mail by sending the price, 75 cents, direct to Marmola Company, Detroit, Mich.

So many people scattered all over the American Continent have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines that there's scarcely a hamlet where some of these grateful people are not to be easily found—ever ready to say a good word for the medicines which cured them and which very likely may cure you, if similarly afflicted. Look them up. They are walking advertisements for Dr. Pierce's medicines—ever ready to pass the good news along that these medicines cure when many others fail. Little advertised NOW, because their record of 40 years of cures makes great displays of their merits unnecessary. The great American people, pretty generally know of their unequalled record.

The Home-Coming celebration being arranged in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Sedalia will be held on October 2, 3, 4 and 5, the week of the state fair, instead of during the month of June, as originally planned.

This was decided by the executive committee in charge at a meeting Friday night, as it was shown that it would be impossible to obtain reduced railway rates at this time, owing to the strained relations between the railroads and the state administration.

Miss Walton has just opened dress-making parlors in the Hoffman building and is prepared to serve the ladies of Sedalia.

"The Store That Saves You Money"

MUST PAY AN INCOME TAX

AMERICANS, LIKE OTHER FOREIGNERS, WILL HAVE TO IN FRANCE.

FEMALES MAY ACT AS INTERPRETERS

Elegant Home for the New Minister of Labor—A Curious Love Tragedy That Came Before the Court of Assizes.

By Paul Villiers.

Cable to the Democrat-Sentinel. (Hearst News Service.)

Paris, April 3.—Americans, like other foreigners resident in France, will be obliged, when the "income tax bill becomes a law, to pay the tax during their stay in this country. Thus, if an American rents a villa at Nice for three months for $2,500, it will be assumed that the annual rental of the villa is $10,000 and the tenant's income will be assumed to be seven times that amount, or $70,000. He will therefore pay income tax to the French revenue authorities on one-quarter of that sum, representing a three months' stay in France.

If the American is earning his living in France in trade, commerce or the liberal profession he will be asked to declare his sources of revenue. He will then be obliged to pay a tax varying according to the category to which his source of income belongs and, in addition, a supplementary tax on his total income.

Women may not only practice in the law courts, but as sworn interpreters as well. H. Foricnon, the first president of the court of appeals, has just appointed Mme. Cighara as an interpreter. This a new career is opened to women who possess the necessary qualifications. They must not only have a thorough knowledge of several languages, but must possess some knowledge of criminal, civil and international law.

Mme. Cighara, who is a widow, obtained her linguistic accomplishments very easily. Her father was a British consul, who spoke three languages; her mother was a German, who also had a knowledge of three tongues, while her husband was an Italian and a sworn interpreter.

She has a sister married to an Englishman, another sister is married to a Norwegian, while she herself is a naturalized Frenchwoman. Every year since she became a widow Mme. Cighara had applied for a position as interpreter, and although there is no law debarring women from acting in this capacity, her request was invariably refused.

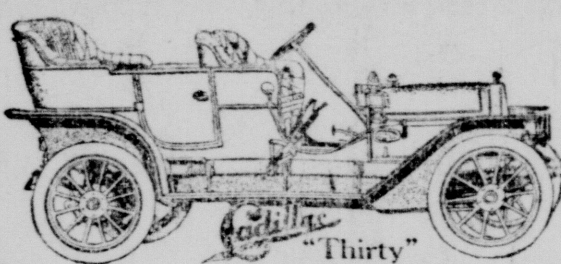

Then, however, the Montagnina case revealed the ignorance of certain sworn interpreters. M. Foricnon decided that henceforth candidates for the position of interpreters would have to pass an examination. The new regulation was made retrospective; all the sworn interpreters had therefore to undergo an examination, and out of seventy only twenty-two emerged successfully from the ordeal. Mme. Cighara renewed her application. She was given permission to sit for examination and passed successfully.

M. Viviani, the minister of labor, has just moved into his new official residence, formerly the palace of the archbishop of Paris. In the course of a visit to the ministry this afternoon, it was impressed by the imposing character of the apartments which will now house the socialist minister and his subordinates.

A spacious vestibule is approached by a majestic flight of steps, with exquisite hammered iron balustrade, leading to the upper floors. What was formerly the archbishop's chapel is now the dining room of the labor minister. It is more than forty-five feet long by twenty feet broad, and its large bay windows look out on the fine old garden in which the late Cardinal Richelieu and his coadjutors used to loiter on summer evenings, and listen to the splashing of a fountain. The fountain has two supero vases in pink and yellow marble, with serpents intertwined, while the base is formed and interlaced dolphins in gilded metal, after the manner of the tritons at the palace of Versailles.

The ceilings of the chapel are supported by columns with sculptured capitals between which are richly carved panels of eighteenth century design. Floods of electric light fall from massive gilded candelabra. Delegations of laborers will be received in the minister's cabinet, the most elegant room in the palace.

Lofty gilt pilasters support a cornice relieved by graceful ornaments. Above the doors are fine sculptures, and the great chimneypiece in white marble is flanked by superb bronzes. On the first floor are a billiard room, a private salon, a second dining room of smaller dimensions than that of the ground floor, but quite as artistically decorated and two bedrooms that are intended for the minister and command a view of the archbishop's garden and the gilded dome of the invalides.

The general scheme of decoration employed throughout the ministry of labor is white and gold, and as M. Viviani's socialist tendencies have little in keeping with the empire period and its traditions he has compromised on furniture of the Louis XIII and Louis XIV styles. The workmen are still busy at the ministry, which will not be entirely finished for some time to come.

A curious love tragedy came before the Seine assizes court yesterday. The director of a cinematographic establishment rushed into a house where his sweetheart lived. He was followed by the concierge, who saw him knock at the girls door and heard him demand entrance in the name of the law.

As the young woman refused to open the door he forced an entrance. Soon cries were heard, then a shot. The man carried his sweetheart downstairs and placed her in a motor car which stood before the door. The car drove off at a rapid rate and stopped at a drug store; but it had been followed by the police, who arrested the man, and had the girl conveyed to Lariboisiere hospital.

The young woman recovered from her wound and was in court yesterday.

elegantly attired. The man was accused of attempting to murder the girl but the latter astonished the court by declaring that she had shot herself. Not being able to accept this strange story offhand, the jury has taken a day to consider the verdict.

The reading of the adjudication which will shortly take place at the prefecture of the Seine will reveal a bizarre profession, the existence of which is not generally known. The list shows that here is in Paris a sportsman who has the right—and the duty—to shoot rabbits in all seasons and without taking out a shooting license.

This disciple of St. Huber is a manufacturer who makes a contract with the city. According to the conditions, he has to exterminate all the rabbits which infest the cemeteries of Paris. Only one cemetery is excluded from the contract. It is that of Parc Lachaise, where the keepers themselves shoot the rabbits found there.

HAS GONE HATLESS 15 YEARS

New York Man Toured Europe With Head Uncovered.

New York, April 3.—Frederick G. Mead, of Ossining, is the way he was booked on the passenger list of the Wilhelm II, in this port, but aboard ship he was better known as "the hatless man."

For fifteen years he has not worn a hat and he says he never will wear one as long as he lives. "I forgot my hat one day about fifteen years ago," he said "and found it felt so fine going without it that I've never worn one since, and I am never going to. It's great. I never have a headache or cold, and it saves the hat."

And There's the Difference. The fool wanders, the wise travel. —Spanish proverb.

Seventy Years Old.

Rheumatism and neuralgia yield their pain to Perry Davis' Painkiller—so do sprains, burns, bruises. It cures colds, colic, diarrhoea. For seventy years it has been doing good. If it's used early suffering is saved and danger avoided. A 35 cent bottle is the new size; but a 50 cent bottle is really the cheapest—it holds so much more.
